Synopsis: Writer/director Nate Skoog weaves this creepy tale concerning a family plagued by horrific visions and stalked by a cult that seeks to unlock the secret hidden deep in the family bloodline. In the O'Connor household, everyone has their fair share of secrets: while cheating father Richard is driven by obsession, loving mother Jane is blinded by love, suspicious step-son Peter is always on the defense, sickly child Carolyn has been mysteriously rendered mute, and eccentric uncle Dominic is well on his way to finding out just what strange curse binds his desperate clan. Later, as one of the O'Connors attempts to cast away the dark cloud that looms overhead, their perception of reality will be altered in ways incomprehensible to the human mind. ~ Jason Buchanan, Rovi.
